

Distinguished Colleagues,

As you may know, several calls for projects are open under the FP7 RTDI Program. A particular characteristic of FP7 was the implementation of Joint Technology Initiatives (JTI). An example of such JTI is the Fuel Cells and Hydrogen Joint Undertaking (FCH JU). This Platform has been developed as a public-private partnership and it is coordinating dedicated calls for projects supporting the implementation of fuel cells and hydrogen technologies in the European Union.

On January 15th, it has been launched the FCH-JU-2013 Call with deadline for May 22nd. In order to promote the participation of scientific research and innovative community from the South East Europe we are planning to organize a Brokerage Event that is scheduled for March 12th, in Bucharest, at the Campus of “Politehnica” University of Bucharest.

We are sending you attached the draft program and the template for project proposals. We shall be extremely grateful if you could express your willingness for participation to the event and to send us your ideas for projects until March 5th.

For the participants interested in making poster presentations it shall be organized a dedicated posting area.

For any further information please do not hesitate to contact us and to distribute this invitation to other possible interested parties.

Thank you!

Prof. Dr. Eden MAMUT

Background

The Fuel Cells and Hydrogen Joint Undertaking (FCH JU) is a unique public private partnership supporting research, technological development and demonstration (RTD) activities in fuel cell and hydrogen energy technologies in Europe. Its aim is to accelerate the market introduction of these technologies, realising their potential as an instrument in achieving a carbon-lean energy system.

The FCH JU is the result of long-standing cooperation between representatives of industry, scientific community, public authorities, technology users and civil society in the context of the European Hydrogen and Fuel Cell Technology Platform. The Platform was launched under the 6th Framework Programme for Research (FP6) as a grouping of stakeholders, led by companies representing the entire supply chain for fuel cell and hydrogen energy technologies.
